Iowa Mennonite School

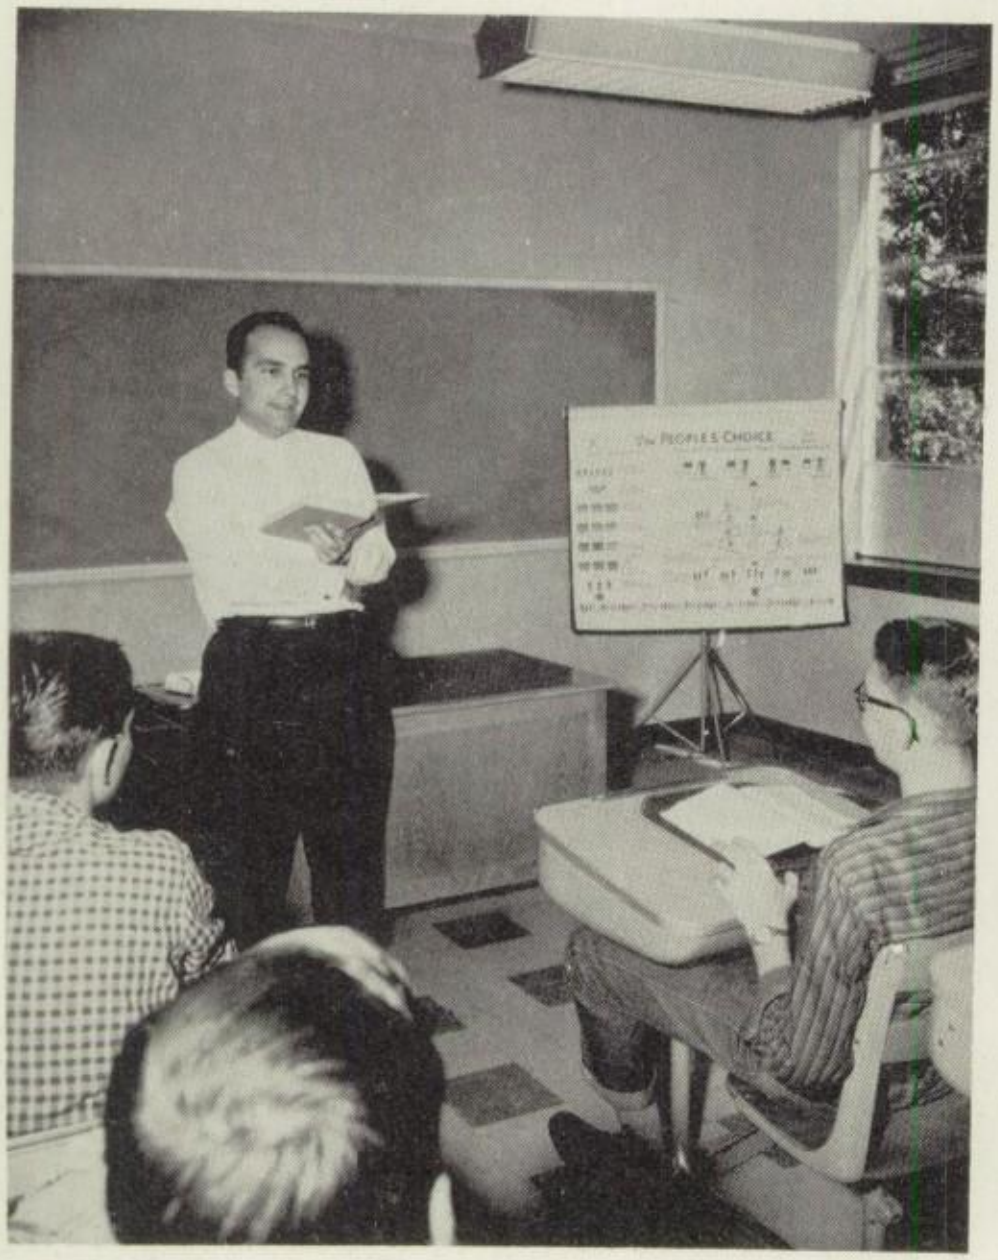
KALONA, IOWA

We Gather Here

For Study

For Worship

And For Fellowship



To you, Mr. Krall, for making this school a pleasant place in which to be, we dedicate this Reverie. We have appreciated your easy-going ways, your willingness to help with our problems, and your concern for each one of us. For helping us to an understanding of the workings of our government, for being our class sponsor, and for ably serving as principal during the past year, we express our sincere gratitude.

your commencement means that you have achieved a goal. As young people most of life stretches before you. There will be more goals and more achievements; your learning will continue. As Christian young people you have chosen Christ to lead you through life's experiences.

As you graduate I Congratulate you for your academic success. As you go through life with Christ I rejoice, for you have chosen a perfect guide.

Giving a good chorus program which fulfills the worship experience is not an easy thing to do. It takes wholehearted effort to get into the mood of it by one's expression. After the hard work of chorus practices it is an enriching, rewarding experience to help lead others in a period of worship and praise.

1948--1958

After ten years of sailing the rough seas of life, the first graduating class of Iowa Mennonite School met again on May 18, 1958, at Hillcrest Union. This was the first occasion on which all class members were reunited since parting and going separate ways on graduation night, May 24, 1948. The "not-so-familiar" (to some of us) modern buildings of the present were quite a contrast to the quonset of the past. We concluded, however, that rain dripping from a Quonset roof had not interfered with our education.

The class prophecy (written from an observatory on the moon--something more nearly realized today than anticipated at that time) was read from the 1948 Reverie. The status of each class member was brought up to date and a new prophecy was written for the coming ten years.

Cleo Gnagey lived up to the former prophecy more nearly than any other class member--he is a dedicated teacher at the Pacific rural grade school in Johnson County. He is the only one not married, as yet, although much encouragement was given him to do so before our next reunion so that we can claim a 100% "matrimony-ized" class!

Glen Hershberger is married to the former Phyllis Whetstine and is father of two children: Robin Lindell, 3, and Janice Lynn, 1. He lives in a trailer home in Iowa City and drives a gasoline transport for Skelly Oil Co.

Fred Schrock, now married to the former Helen Yoder, lives in Linwood, California, and is a full-time Fuller Brush salesman.

Henry Junior Hochstetler is married to the former Lois Leichty and is father of four children: Steven Douglas, 9, David Henry, 8, Cyntha Amy, 5, and Patricia Ann, 3. Still doing "big" things, he has been president of "Citation" Mobile Homes Manufacturing Co. since August 7, 1958. He now lives in Goshen, Indiana.

Helen Marner, now Mrs. Clarence Yoder of Wellman, Iowa, is the only one remaining on the farm today, although we were all products of the farm. She has no children. She enjoys milking cows and making hay.

Darlene Brenneman, married to Leo Miller, is mother of three children: Wendell Edwin, 6, Eileen Joyce, 3, and Merlin Lamar, 1. She lives in a new home in Kalona, Iowa, where her family keeps her ever busy.

Ethel Swartzendruber, married to Henry D. Miller, lives in Kalona, Iowa. She says she is a "school teacher's widow." Her children are June Roxanna, 3, Kim Randall, 1 1/2, and Jolene Marice, born January 11, 1959.

Ada Christner is married to Burdette Hershberger and lives in Iowa City, Iowa, where she is her husband's "unsalaried secretary." Her children are Jill, 7, John Douglas, 4, and George Anthony, 10 months.

It was decided that we would hold a reunion every ten years. After the singing of our class hymn, "Jesus Savior, Pilot Me," we parted again. With the unknown future before us, we pray that we will give Christ His rightful place as the Captain of our souls and "though the billows roll," we may sail on "till heaven's port shall be won."
